

Long-Term Services & Supports: Tribal Nations in Action for Elders, People with Disabilities, and Veterans

Wednesday, October 23, 2019

1:30 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Room: Santa Ana

Long-Term Services & Supports (LTSS) are crucial for elders, people with disabilities, and veterans to receive necessary daily care in a respectful and safe way. This session will focus on strategies for accessing funding, expanding services/reimbursements in communities, supporting caregivers, and how to advocate for long-term care for Indian Country.

Moderator: • Brittany Habbart, Wilma Mankiller Fellow, National Congress of American Indians

Panelists:

- Larry Curley, Executive Director, National Indian Council on Aging (NICOA)
- Natalie Abeita, Administrator, Pueblo of Isleta Assisted Living & Memory Care Facility
- Juana Casillas, Chair, Tohono O'odham Nursing Care Authority (TONCA)
- Frances Stout, Board Member, Tohono O'odham Nursing Care Authority (TONCA)

1. Welcome and Introduction
2. LTSS Success: Pueblo of Isleta Assisted Living & Memory Care Facility
3. LTSS Success: Tohono O'odham Nursing Care Authority
4. LTSS Advocate: National Indian Council on Aging
5. Evolution of LTSS
6. Advocating for LTSS
7. Questions, Tribal Leader Discussion
8. Adjourn