learnDOJ SCHEDULED OFFERING NUMBER: 43260

The National Indian Country Training Initiative (NICTI), together with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, is pleased to announce the Human Trafficking in Indian Country Seminar. The seminar will be held February 3-5, 2015, at the National Advocacy Center (NAC). Travel and lodging accommodations will be paid for by the Department of Justice. There is no tuition fee for this training.

This seminar is intended for federal and tribal criminal justice professionals working in Indian Country. This seminar will serve to enhance participant's understanding of legal definitions, elements of federal offenses, and current issues and challenges of human trafficking enforcement. The training will include in-depth discussions of effective strategies for identifying, investigating, and prosecuting human trafficking cases, including prosecutors' roles in planning successful enforcement operations; strategies for developing victim testimony; pretrial litigation strategies; effective trial presentation in human trafficking prosecutions; and sentencing issues. This seminar will focus primarily on sex trafficking.

Please complete the attached form for each of your nominees and E-Mail or FAX to the attention of Delores McCarter, Office of Legal Education, FAX number 803-705-5110. Nominations are due by Friday, December 5, 2014.

The NICTI will review all nominations and send an e-mail advising nominees of their selection on or about December 15, 2014. Selected nominees will also receive information on how to book travel and lodging.

In order to ensure that our records are correct, please type in the required information when completing the nomination forms. Illegible and/or incomplete forms will not be considered.

Due to the increasing number of last minute cancellations, we must ask that only nominations for those who are certain to attend be submitted.

The Executive Office for United States Attorneys will provide reasonable accommodations to people with disabilities. Requests should be made to Delores McCarter as early as possible, preferably at least two weeks in advance of the seminar. No nominee will be excluded from a course on the basis of a disability-related accommodations request.

This training is authorized under the Government Employees Training Act.

Any questions regarding this training seminar should be directed to Delores McCarter at (803) 705-5123.
