A BILL

To amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to treat Indian tribal governments in the same manner as State governments for certain Federal tax purposes, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the "Tribal Tax and Invest-
5 ment Reform Act of 2013".

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 The Congress finds the following:

1 (1) There is a unique Federal legal and political
2 relationship between the United States and Indian
3 tribes.

4 (2) Indian tribes have the responsibility and au-
5 thority to provide governmental <sup>programs and</sup> services, develop
6 tribal economies, and build community infrastruc- <sup>to tribal citizens</sup>
7 ture to ensure that Indian reservation lands serve as 8 livable, permanent homes.

9 (3) The United States Constitution, U.S. Fed-
10 eral Court decisions, Executive Orders, and numer-
11 ous other federal laws and regulations recognize that
12 Indian tribes are governments, retaining the inher-
13 ent authority to tax and operate as other govern-
14 ments, including (inter alia) financing projects with 15 government bonds and maintaining eligibility for 16 general tax exemptions via their government status.

17 (4) Codifying tax parity with respect to tribal
18 governments is consistent with Federal treaties rec-
19 ognizing the sovereignty of tribal governments.

20 (5) That Indian tribes face historic disadvan-
21 tages in accessing the underlying capital to build the 22 necessary infrastructure for job creation, and that
23 certain statutory restrictions on tribal governance
24 further inhibit tribes' ability to develop strong gov-
25 ernance and economies.

1           (6) Indian tribes are sometimes excluded from
2           the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 in key provisions
3           which results in unfair tax treatment for tribal citi-
4           zens or unequal enforcement authority for tribal en-
5           forcement agencies.

6           (7) Congress is vested with the authority to 7           regulate commerce with Indian tribes, and hereby
8           exercises that authority in a manner which furthers
9           tribal self-governance, and in doing so, further af-
10          firms the United States government-to-government
11          relationship with Indian tribes.

12 SEC. 3. TREATMENT OF INDIAN TRIBES AS STATES WITH 13 RESPECT TO BOND ISSUANCE.
